

The advocacy

In-depth study of the course "Advocacy" allows students to gain the basics of professional knowledge in this type of legal activity, properly navigate and apply current legislation of Ukraine in the performance of professional duties, helps to develop future lawyers' skills in using statutory means and methods the rights of citizens in providing various types of qualified legal assistance.

The Constitution of Ukraine proclaims the right of everyone to legal aid and guarantees its implementation, relying on the bar as one of the constitutional guarantees of ensuring the right to protection from prosecution and legal aid in resolving cases in courts and other state bodies. A number of legislative acts concerning the practice of advocacy in Ukraine, the organization of the bar, the procedure for providing various types of legal assistance, professional rights of a lawyer create appropriate conditions for the availability of legal aid, promote the fulfillment of lawyers' professional duty.

Ukrainian lawyers do a lot of work to protect the rights of citizens, promote the administration of justice and the proper functioning of the legal system.

The purpose of teaching the discipline "Advocacy" is the formation of students' systematic knowledge of advocacy, developing their ability to use regulations in connection with the provision of legal assistance to citizens, care for the interests of society and the state, rights and freedoms of citizens